St Michael's Thursday Newsletter October 29, 2015

Dear Parents,

Special thanks to planning coordinators, Heather Guichard and Tanya Akins, and parents volunteers who helped in creating another wonderful Harvest Fall Festival for the parish children. It was a wonderful evening! Kudos to all of you.

Iowa Assessment

The standardized testing went very well. We were pleased that the students were appropriately focused while taking the test. A narrative report regarding the students test performance will be sent home parents in approximately six weeks. I usually have a couple of evenings that I set aside to explain the testing for anyone who would be interested. More information will come later regarding dates and times. The school staff uses the results for instructional and planning purposes, school programs and individual needs.

Peace,
Karen Matthews, principal

Auction News

Got Baskets? We do!!

The class baskets will be raffled off at our Christmas program on December 14th. We have a Spa Day Basket, Jack-pot basket, Seahawks basket and of course a Party Starter basket. Something for everyone! Look for raffle tickets to go on sale at the Fall Carnival, Turkey Dinner and in the Narthex after certain masses!!

Mark your Calendars and Bring a Friend!

St. Michael's 1st annual Quarter Craze is November 13th at 6:30 pm in the large hall. What's a quarter craze? Here's the skinny: For $5 you purchase your bidding paddle. Bring two rolls of quarters with you - that's all you'll need for purchasing items! We have a wonderful variety of vendors coming who will offer a brief presentation of their goods, and then will donate an item for auction. No item will cost more than $1! That great set of essential oils that retails for $50? You have a shot at getting it for 50 cents. Beautiful necklace or bracelet set that retails for $30? Grab a quarter - it could be yours! Toss your coins into the bowl, raise your paddle, and if your number is the one picked, you win! Look for bidding paddles to go on sale soon at the Turkey Dinner, after masses beginning November 6th and at the door the night of the Quarter Craze.
