Dear Parents,

The auction was again a great success. Kudos to co-chairs, Tanya Akins and Cassie Chhin. and their hardworking auction committee. The net revenues of approximately of $58,000.00 met the budgetary goals for the school year. These funds will provide monies, for operating expenses, tuition assistance and continue to support our Information Technology needs. The school community is truly blest to have such creative and dedicated parents.

As we move into the third trimester, we have some fun and educational activities for the students in the coming weeks. Some of you are already helping out with the planning of these events. If anyone is interested and/ or needs volunteer hours, please give contact us by email or phone.
